

Northern Virginia's Trilogy® at Lake Frederick Developer Receives America's Most Trusted™ Award for Fifth Consecutive Year

Posted by Alison Beckwith / 28 Feb 2017

The developer behind Northern Virginia's community, has been recognized as America's most trusted active-adult resort builder for the fifth consecutive year.

Being recognized for this award five years in a row is truly an honor as well as a direct reflection of the diligent efforts every team member makes to exceed our company's values and goals, said Shea Homes Active Lifestyle Communities President Jeff McQueen. Our dedication to making a difference, enhancing lives and providing quality in service and product rings true when we continue to be regarded as the most trusted resort builder year after year by consumers.

Trilogy by Shea Homes, a national Active Lifestyle Communities builder, was recently recognized as America's Most Trusted Active Adult Resort Builder by Lifestory Research. Its Trilogy at Lake Frederick community in Northern Virginia is just 90 minutes from Washington, D.C., offering a new option for Baby Boomers looking for a vibrant 55+ active-adult lifestyle nestled in the heart of the Shenandoah Valley.

Set within the Blue Ridge Mountains, the Trilogy at Lake Frederick development includes the new 36,000 sq. ft. Shenandoah Lodge & Athletic Club, extensive hiking and biking trails, the Region's 117 farm-to-table restaurant and expanding views of the Shenandoah Valley and the picturesque 117-acre Lake Frederick on which it sits.

America's Most Trusted is a designation granted to brands that garner trust amongst the consumers they serve. Lifestory Research, a national independent market research firm focused on customers, employees, brands and the science of influence, bases awards on the collection and evaluation of thousands of consumer opinions. The 2017 study details can be found on Lifestory Research.

Trilogy by Shea Homes is part of the Shea Homes family of companies and has 16 active lifestyle communities across the United States. Trilogy communities are designed to create an enriched lifestyle through exploring new interests and activities, overall wellness and connections to a vibrant social life.

Our dedication to making a difference, enhancing lives and providing quality in service and product rings true when we continue to be regarded as the most trusted resort builder year after year by consumers, added McQueen.

