

REGGAE FEST COMES BACK TO DC FOR REGGAE FEST VS SOCA

There is absolutely NOTHING sexier than vibes from the islands and winding your body to a collection of reggae jams.

The Reggae Fest is a dance party tour with events in NYC, DC, ATL & Miami. I had the pleasure of attending the Reggae x Soca event last month on May 26th.

The atmosphere was full of beautiful women, dapper gentleman, a collection of talented DJs -DJ Yung Rage and DJ Maya on the 1s and 2s.

This is definitely an event where the surroundings were more about having a great time, than impressing a bunch of strangers.

CJ Milan, owner of Epic League Entertainment says: "there's nothing like DC - the energy and crowd are amazing. We absolutely love it here, it's my favorite city. We're bringing Soca Inferno here in late July as well. We want to keep everything fresh in DC."

If you are looking for an amazing evening with your buddies, or an intimate and fun night of dancing with your significant other, the Reggae Fest is where you need to be THIS FRIDAY - June 30th.

You can order tickets for June 30th at Howard Theatre here.
