
Top 15 Songs on Billboard Hot 100 Week 30 September 2017 Chart Report

Posted by Eddy / 29 Sep 2017

Taylor Swifts song Look What You Made Me Do is a non-mover and remains on the number one spot with four weeks on the chart. On the second place is Cardi B Bodak Yellow (Money Moves) as it maintained its position from the previous week. Logic Featuring Alessia Cara & Khalid 1-800-273-8255 is continuing to move up the chart, it occupied the third place from fifth in its twentieth week on the chart.

According to celebrity news, the most popular song of the summer Despacito by Luis Fonsi & Daddy Yankee Featuring Justin Bieber is continuing to fall off the chart. It moved from the third place to fourth place this week. Sam Smiths Too Good at Goodbyes debuted at number 5. The new pop song has 33 000 and 90 000 downloads in the UK and US respectively. It is his highest debut ever in the US.

Meanwhile, Wild Thoughts by DJ Khaled featuring Rihanna and Bryson Tiller remains at number 5 from last week. French Montana featuring Swae Unforgettable moved two places in the positive direction from number 9 last week to 7 this week. The cool jam by Charlie Puth Attention slipped a place down the chart to the seventh position from eighth in the previous week. Moreover, Believer by Imagine Dragons also dropped one place from number 8 last week to number 9 this week.

Theres Nothing Holdin Me Back by Shawn Mendes is another non-mover on the chart at number 10. Niall Horan song Slow Hands moved four places up the chart to position eleven from fifteen. While Strip That Down by Liam Payne featuring Quavo climbed from number 14 to 12 this week. Demi Lavito remains position 13 with a song Sorry Not Sorry.

Feel It Still by Portugal. The Man and Bank Account by 21 Savage are number 14 and 15 respectively.